

House of Dreams

REGINALD DEATON is a thirteen year old student at St. Joseph's School, Drumcondra. St. Joseph's is a school for boys who are disabled through visual impairment.

LIAM BELTON is a teacher of ceramics and clay modelling at St. Joseph's School.

Although Reginald is only partially sighted he has become an expert clay modeller. He is a four times winner of the Slogadh competition. He specialises in creating imaginative buildings and structures. He would like to be an architect.

Photo by Sarah Barrow.